Presents
2017 Winter Advance
Reverence for God
February 3-5, 2017
Ross Point Camp - Post Falls, Idaho

“The fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge:” Proverbs 1:7a

In the King James Bible the word “fear” is used many times. Sometimes it is actual fear as we know it- being terrified. But mostly it is used to communicate respect, reverence, awe, worship, and love. The respect and reverence for God is the beginning, the chief thing, the principle thing, the first thing, in gaining knowledge.

To respect and reverence God is where it starts, that is the foundation on which our lives as believers begins. At some point in our lives, we came to the realization that God was great. He was big, loving and forgiving. Some of us were in deep despair or in trouble when we turned to God and He reached down and saved us. Some of us were searching for answers and He spoke to us somehow and got answers to us. Some grew up knowing God Almighty as our Heavenly Father.

Knowing Him, that He is real and present, is where it begins. We grow as we study, listen and put on the Word. The knowledge He imparts through His Word and via holy spirit teaches us about Him and His son, Christ Jesus. Salvation, sonship and the more than abundant life begin to blossom in our lives as we believe and walk with Him. It will be of great benefit to look at this topic together!

You and yours are invited to be a part of Winter Advance 2017, to be held at Ross Point Camp in Post Falls, Idaho.
